Description

In January 2024, leaks emerged across the internet that owners of Class 37 37409, Locomotive Services Limited had repainted it into a fictitious livery, that being BR Scotrail.

It previously was in BR Large Logo blue when it was with its previous owners Direct Rail Services up until its purchase by LSL and was stripped of its previous name 'Lord Hinton'. Since its repaint it has now be renamed one of its previous names 'Loch Awe'.
