

[OTS] New Years Eve Escapade by Mark Walker

86241

It's New Years Eve and everyone is celebrating, well except you! Sadly you have to try and get home from Birmingham to London! There's been problems all day due to the weather, it is clearing through now but there's a large backlog of trains to get moving.

You will be in control of 1A61 18:18 Birmingham New St to Euston, calling at Birmingham International, Coventry, Rugby, Watford Junction and arrival into London Euston, which was booked at 19:59, but now certainly won't be!
